[INTRO]

True... Yeah, so true...

[VERSE 1]

The street, a concrete jungle,

Trees with poisonous flowers hidden inside... (poison)

Fantasies and colorful disguises,

Where selfish interests destroy all real values. (real values)

Money and ruin on every corner,

Fake love that embraces only to wreck your heart... (wreck your heart)

Masks that hide betrayal and lies,

Diamond eyes that blind your reason. (blind your reason)

[VERSE 2]

Take care... believe only in GOD,

You only reach thorns when you try to pick flowers...

Blinding lights among doubts, shadows, and excess,

Highway to hell, don't look at fear or complex...

Don't look at fake beauty, don't listen to empty praise,

Just look straight ahead through the darkest of days.

With the light of GOD as your lamp and your guide,

Without loss, without risks, in His arms you won't slide...

[VERSE 3]

No lies, only truth, His truth stands fast,

The only path that brings peace that will last. (will last)

Blessed be, JESUS, for Your mercy and grace,

From wolves You protect us in this wild place. (from false sheep)

Thank You for Your love and patience without end,

Praise be to You, Lord... we don't deserve what You send. (so much and all)

[OUTRO]

And if you fall... GOD will raise you high, (raise you high)

We all stumble when the dark fills the sky... (we all fall)

We all stumble at some point in time,

Just hold on to Him through the struggle and climb. (hold on to Him)

Jesus, never let Him go... (never)

My child... never turn away from Him.
